c. Shoreline’s Virtual College:
   Jerry reported that the marketing program to promote the Virtual College was having a positive impact on purchasing/supply chain enrollment. Jim Hill explained marketing program details.

3. Program Outcomes - Update
   a. Jerry reported that the Business Department’s faculty, Division Planning Council and Curriculum Committee approved the program outcomes for the degree and certificate of proficiency, certificate of completion, and certificate of sustainability. Program guides will be updated for use in 2014-15 academic year.

   b. Jerry reported that the college will no longer offer ACCTG 101 or 103. The two classes are replaced by ACCTG 201 and 203. ACCTG 101 and 103 will be eliminated from the program guides for the degree and certificate of proficiency.

   c. BUSTEC 105, Computer Applications, no longer meets the quantitative requirements for the State of Washington community college.

   Jerry recommended that Math 211 or 146 replace BUSTEC 105 as the quantitative requirements for the degree and certificate of proficiency. Theresa Dodge moved and Jan Hagestad seconded the motion to use Math 211/146 as the quantitative requirements for the purchasing/supply chain degree. After discussion, the motion was approved.
